

Pack Separately Checklist

It is better to be safe than sorry when transporting your personal valuables.

We recommend that these items travel with you in a carry-on bag or in a personal vehicle while your household goods are in transit.

Even though the likelihood of accidental loss is low when moving cross-country, items that require additional security or special access are better kept in your personal vehicle during a move.

- Address books
- Airline tickets
- Car titles
- Cash
- Cell phones
- Checkbooks
- Computer
- Photo albums
- Financial documents
- IRAs, Deeds, Tax Records
- Home Videos
- Insurance Policies
- Jewelry and Furs
- House and Car Keys
- Medical Records
- Dental Records
- New home Documents
- Prescription Medicine
- School Records
- Stocks, Bonds, CDs,